ALEXANDRIA, VA., MONDAY EVENING, JANUARY 16, 1905.

PRICE 2 CENTS.

No joy or pleasure on this earth quite equals that which comes into the home when a baby arrives. Who can describe the happiness of man and woman, joined in wedlock, as they look upon the fragile, delicate mite that is blood of their blood and flesh of their flesh? And who can depict the hopelessness and dejection that hover about the home where the wife is incapable of becoming a mother? Barrenness proceeds from some derangement of the distinctly feminine organs. Many of the common ailments known as "female troubles" cause it. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription overcomes barrenness by stamping out diseases of women, and by healing and curing ulceration. It tones up the system, stops drains, and restores strength. During gestation it modifies morning sickness, gives elasticity to the overstrained parts concerned, makes the hour of baby's coming short and almost painless, and gives wonderful recuperative power to the patient. By making the mother strong and cheerful, it makes the little one healthy, vigorous and good natured. Insist upon the medicine dealer giving you Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription when you ask for it. Substitutes are often dangerous.

Mrs. James W. Blocker, of 605 Catherine St., Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "Your medicine has done wonders for me. For years my health was very poor. I had four miscarriages, but since taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Favorite Prescription I have much better health, and now I have a fine healthy baby."

For 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, you can get a free copy of that celebrated doctor book, the Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1000 pages, illustrated, cloth-bound, 4 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

TO CURE ANY DISEASE.

The Cause Must be Removed, Same Way With Dandruff.

NOT the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair and baldness, you will have no more dandruff, and your hair must grow luxuriantly. The Herpicide must not only remove the dandruff germ, but it is also a most delightful hair dressing for regular toilet use. No other hair preparation is on this scientific basis of destroying the dandruff germ. It stops all irritation, keeps the scalp sweet, pure and wholesome. Remember that something claimed to be "just as good," will not do the work of genuine Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

ALFONSO PREFERS BLONDE.

Who will be Alfonso XIII's bride? That question dominates Spain today, and is especially dear to the Madrileños.

Though the King is only in his 19th year this gossips will have it that his formally announced intention of making the "grand tour" of Europe early next year has as its object the quest of a suitable bride.

Most stress is being laid upon Alfonso's intention to visit London and Berlin, while the Catholic capitals are at present in the background. As in the case of the Crown Prince of Prussia, his name has already been coupled with that of more than one pretty girl, and much has been heard of the inevitable American, Miss Camilla Rogers, whose fair hair and blue eyes are said to have captured Alfonso's susceptible heart.

By the law of contraries, Alfonso, who is himself dark, prefers the fair; and in the "confession book" of the "princess of the Asturias," lately described his ideal as "fair, blue-eyed and Teutonic, without the Teutonic tendency to stoutness."

As most of the unmarried Catholic princesses of Europe are dark, he is not likely to find his ideal.

The King has recently been trying to maintain Spain's Oriental traditions by mingling incognito among his subjects.

Some weeks ago, dressed in civilian garb, he supped with a young officer at the Restaurant de Fornos, and had the satisfaction of hearing a woman comment upon "his likeness to the king."

After supper he drove with his companion along the Calle de Alcala as far as the bull ring, questioning his hired coachman on matters of high politics. These escapades are, however, by no means common. On the whole, Alfonso is reserved, indifferent to applause and shy.

Alfonso has of late been busy on plans for improving the big, uncomfortable palace which overlooks the Manzanares.

The unattractive park, which stretches down almost to the river, is to be replanted, and the King's private rooms redecorated.

The king is as fond as any woman of pretty surroundings, and has more than once given his mother, Queen Christina, cause for grave apprehensions by his lavish method of spending money on unessential things. The queen's influence has, however, lately diminished greatly, for Alfonso is exceedingly willful, and insists that he, and no one else, is sovereign of Spain.

According to his intimates, Alfonso is inclined to be Anglophile in his tastes. A court official, however, says that he was intensely annoyed at the Anglo-French treaty about Morocco. Most of his wrath, however, was directed against France, and during the Anglo-Portuguese amities he remarked more than once that Spain was being left out in the cold.

A Divorce from Bride.

One of the most sensational divorce cases in the history of New Jersey is now being heard before Justice Childs in the Court of Chancery in Newark, where Dr. James J. Young is suing his beautiful wife for divorce, naming James A. Annot, of Brooklyn, as co-respondent.

Mrs. Young was Miss Harriet Maria Ross, daughter of John L. Ross, who is well known in Brooklyn Heights society. The daughter is a noted beauty, and her picture took one of the prizes in the beauty contest held recently at the St. Louis Exposition. The various details as they have been brought out at the trial have proved intensely absorbing to society in Newark and Brooklyn, and the announcement that there is yet more to be brought out has not tended to diminish interest in any degree. The evidence to date involves the alleged infidelity of a wife and a friend, the entrance by detectives into a suite of rooms in the Fifth Avenue Hotel, the finding there of the man who has been named and the defendant, and the preparation of a suit for $100,000, for the alienation of affection. Mrs. Young has put in no defense and is now in southern California. Dr. Young's attorneys, are now trying to serve Mr. Annot with papers.

Miss Ross met Dr. Young at a medical school where she was taking a course in medicine. This was in Baltimore. Later she continued her studies at the Long Island College Hospital, where Dr. Young was serving as interne. Love developed between the two, and finally in 1898 they were married in St. Michael's Methodist Episcopal Church in Brooklyn. They were happy until last summer. Mr. Annot, who has been named in the case, was a friend of Dr. Young, and last summer he paid the Youngs a long visit.

Mr. Wm. S. Crane, of California, Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
